PROGRAM: Past Lives, Present Truths

To celebrate Women's History Month, SACWN is honored to present Dr. Sally Wagner, one of the first recipients of a doctorate in Women's Studies (U.C. Santa Cruz), in her performance/dialogue on Matilda Joslyn Gage, a foremother of the American Feminist Movement. Educator, author, columnist and activist, Dr. Wagner has appeared around the country receiving luminous reviews for her lectures and workshops. SACWN is proud and fortunate to have the opportunity to host Dr. Wagner as she illuminates the inspiring life and contributions to women's history of Matilda Joslyn Gage.

No RSVPs will be necessary, but you must be registered prior to 7:15 to assure getting a dinner plate. Dinner will be a chef's choice buffet with dessert and coffee served after the program. Cost of the dinner will be $10.00 for members and $15.00 for non-members. Program only seating will also be available for $5.00

Exploring our past through Dr. Wagner's presentation will allow us to celebrate and keep alive the drive toward present goals of equality and a future ripe with unfettered potential and freed identity.

Successful SACWN-ite:

An ovation and laudation is long overdue for Thea who has devoted her time and talent so generously to the SACWN newsletter. With the rarest exceptions (this issue is one), the newsletter has been written by Thea, a product of and tribute to her dexterity with words. Hers has long been and remains a vital voice heard through this monthly letter and deserving of our praise and gratitude. Thanks muchly Thea!

We know you're out there making an impact, here's where you should be taking a bow. Inspire your peers and let us share in your career achievements. Applause and appreciation are only a phone call away. Call 922-1809 evenings.

Committee News:

Steering Committee — Members of the Steering Committee who have been designated as coordinators in specific areas of SACWN activity are:

Steering Committee Coordinator: Gail Mancarti
Finance Coordinator: Jayne Rountree
Governance: Tommye K.
Volunteer Coordinator: Judy Franks
Database Manager: Lori Crum
Recorder: Roseanna Herber

Membership Development Committee — The Membership Development Committee fulfills an important role in our organization by greeting new members, facilitating networking through programs and job announcements and providing information to those interested in joining SACWN. Each of these functions is of vast significance to the success of our organization, contributing in a paramount way to SACWN's growth and viability. Your participation on this committee will be enthusiastically welcomed. The next committee meeting will be held at 7:00 p.m. on February 26. We will be preparing our program presentation for the April network meeting. Call 481-4538 for directions.

Remember to bring job announcements and business cards for the career table at the next meeting.

Newsletter Committee — THE WRITE STUFF - A new look and expanded format for the SACWN newsletter is being planned to provide more varied and indepth features of interest to our members. Your input and feedback are crucial to the direction and dimensions of this change. We encourage women with the "write stuff," ideas, and inspiration to join us as we grow to meet our future. Please phone 924-8266.

Mea Culpa:

Our sincere apologies for any offense caused by the concluding remark in last month's newsletter regarding the January speakers, a sentence said in jest which was justly brought to our attention as ill-worded and insensitive. We are grateful for the perceptive and concerned letters from SACWN members, one noting her "horror at the thought of speaking before a professional group and upon completion (hearing) ... pretty good for lesbians." Humor is a precarious and precious mode of communication ... taken (though not intended) as mockery, the comment regarding the speakers' personal orientation was neither relevant nor reflective of SACWN ideals.
